

CAP-CAFÉ: BEHIND THE SCENES OF NATIONAL RURAL PARLIAMENTS – ADVOCACY METHODS AND TOOLS

Day 7.4.2021 Time: 14-16CET

PREPARE in cooperation with Latvian Rural Forum and SYTY organise its first CAP-café on advocacy by Rural Parliaments. National Rural Parliaments (NRP's) can be seen as a tool for participative democracy, co-planning, co-implementing and co-evaluation. The main result is said to be Manifestos or Declarations. But behind, there is a lot of advocacy work on the ground. What concrete things and steps are done in practice when rural advocacy is done in different countries. What is working, what is not? Join us to learn from each other ways of influencing.

Place: Zoom 7.4.2021 at 2pm CET

LDnet is launching a new series of four webinars in April 2021, in partnership with the RSA, ELARD and AEIDL, on “The Contribution of Community-based Initiatives to the Covid Recovery” with a focus on community-based initiatives for sustainable development.

Registration is now open.

The webinars will be streamed via Zoom and will follow the same format as last year: through short late afternoon/early evening sessions relying on short/sharp presentations and lively contributions from participants and discussion, to look at how the lessons from local responses and the longer-term changes in the social and economic landscape are reshaping the CLLD-type approaches to local development and post-Covid recovery.
